

Online Store Update

GE Digital Energy Online Store User,

We are pleased to notify you that the code upgrade has been completed and the online store is ready to accept orders again.

You will notice some look and feel updates, but basic navigation of the store remains the same. Additionally, new enhancements have been included with the code upgrade. For more information on the updates, please click here.

If you have any questions, please join one of our Q&A sessions:

Thursday, September 10th 11am EST

Wednesday, September 16th 2pm EST

Please feel free to reach out to our sales support teams with any questions.
